n the Twins Special, thank you for all your hard work. I know I've annoyed some of you more than others about getting stuff done for this, but I truly appreciate everyone's hard work.

nies from Rob/Tomoko, Scott/Doug, Tim Blotz and Seth Kaplan. Jeff Shay edited two packages and did a tremendous job on both of them! As always a great job by the talent, Jeff, Marni, Jim and Dawn.

Sunday, October 4th, 2009 Twins-Pre and Post Game Shows on MY 29:

 This is, in essence, an hour long pre-game show, followed by the Twins-Royal's game, followed by an open-ended post-game show dominated by a ceremony by the Twins saying good bye to the Dome.

"Metrodome Memories" Noon-12:30: Coverage begins at noon, with a "Dome Memories" special anchored from the Dome by Jeff Passolt, Jim Rich and Dawn Mitchell. It features several pre-produced packages and live guests.

"Dome Farewell" 12:30p-1pm: Our live coverage continues with the same crews in place as we turn our emphasis to today's final game and the match up itself. It again features Jeff and Jim outside the Dome with Dawn from 3rd place line. We'll have Scott Wasserman talking to arriving fans, an as we get closer to airtime join on field pre-game festivities.

"Twins-Royals": At 1pm our normal MY 29 game broadcast begins.

"Dome Farewell": immediately following the game. The Twins in conjunction with FOX Sports Net have a produced ceremony using a stage on the field and multiple cameras, with nearly two dozen of the biggest names from the Twins Dome years participating. We anchor our coverage from the studio with Jeff Passolt and Marni Hughes; again, the vast majority of this event will come from a multiple camera/switched pool feed operated by FSN.

POSITIONS:

Jeff/Jim and guests: LIVE on Dome set (Cameras: Spencer Driskill, Josh Grenier) (Guests-see below)
